

When you support the Ipswich Museum, you do more than just preserve our town's rich heritage. You make our history part of everyday life for students, families, neighbors, and visitors alike.

Your membership makes exhibits, special events, and school programs possible, and helps with the ongoing restoration and preservation of our historic buildings.

Membership Benefits and Categories

As a member of the Ipswich Museum you receive free admission to both houses and to our evening and lunchtime lecture series; you receive our quarterly newsletter, e-blast announcements, and early notice of all programs and special events. Membership also entitles you to a 10% discount at the museum shop, and access to genealogy research.

Individual: $40

Household: $60 – All the benefits above plus unlimited free admission for 2 adults and children under 18 years of age.

Sustaining: $150 – All the above plus complimentary admission for one guest accompanied by a member.

Sponsor: $250 – All the above plus 15% discount at the museum shop.

Benefactor: $500 – All the above plus complimentary admission for two guests accompanied by a member.

The Arthur Wesley Dow Circle

Named for the well-known 19th century Ipswich artist, the Dow Circle is a special level of membership, that gives individuals an added opportunity to help the Museum preserve and protect its collections. First-time members receive a framed reproduction of an Arthur Wesley Dow print.

$1,000 Dow Circle – Includes all membership benefits listed above plus unlimited free admission for your guests.

$2,500 Dow Circle – All the above plus a private tour of the Museum for you and your guests.
